

CEO of Westmeath VEC retires; MCS says farewell and thanks.

The Chief Executive Officer of Westmeath VEC, Gearoid O'Bradaigh retires at the end of this month. Based in Mullingar Mr. O'Bradaigh is a trustee of Moate Community School. In the past he has been a member of the Board of Management of the school and has sat on various selection committees. The school wishes him well in the future and thank him most sincerely for his valuable contribution in the development of Moate Community School, and for his immense advice and direction over the years.

The school also would like to take this opportunity to wish Val O'Connor all the best as he takes up the vacant post of CEO of Westmeath VEC. Mr. O'Connor is currently principal of Athlone Community College.

