Moate Community School - January 25th 2010

Success for Moate Community School Athletes

MCS athletes made the journey to St. Mary's college Galway, on Wednesday last to partake in the Connacht regional's. Twenty four students flew the flag for Moate along with team coaches Ms. Seoighe and Ms. Halligan.

First from Moate was Mairead Fox in the 1,000m minor girls race, where she came an impressive 8th and qualified for the Connacht finals. It was the minor boys turn now with Billie Berrie, Kevin Booth, Gavin Murray, Ruairi Cunningham, Eoin Concannon, Jordan Heavin and John Maughan flying the flag for Moate. All seven lads gave it there best.

Junior girls were up next and were represented by Anna Redmond, Jean Henson, Shannon Hennessy, Aoife Costello and Ellen O' Kelly Lynch. Anna ran a super race and finished 4th. The junior boys were represented by Theo Watts who finished 19th and just missed out on qualifying.

Susan Scott and Patrice Doolin were up next in the intermediate category. Both girls gave it their all and Susan finished 15th, qualifying for the Connacht finals. Jordan Rooney, Adrian Rabbite and Dwayne Farrell ran in the boys intermediate and finished in the top thirty.

Last to run was the senior boys over a distance of 5000m. Barry Webb, Thomas Fagan, Eric Fallon, Javier Ceballos and Thomas Reilly completed the trying distance with Thomas Fagan finishing an excellent 2nd. Athletes who went through to the Connacht finals were Mairead Fox, Anna Redmond, Susan Scott and Thomas Fagan, which will be held in St. Mary's College Galway on Thursday 11th February 2010.

Well done to all involved
